An Invisible Client by Victor Methos Goodreads

January 25th, 2016 - According to the book an invisible client is a term personal injury lawyers use to refer to people who lived and breathed but didn't officially exist who aren't productive members of the society I believe Rich and powerful lawyer Noah Byron is a personal injury lawyer and he and his firm doesn't take invisible clients Well not until his ex wife who's about to get remarried by the way asks him to talk to his cousin whose kid was ill due to an poisoned cough syrup

An Invisible Client Kindle edition by Victor Methos

- Also it is evident that Noah develops a love for his client Joel who flights a hard but loosing battle to kidney and liver failure Bottom line I'd give the Invisible Client ten stars if I could Yes Victor Methos is that good and an excellent author who keeps his readers on the edge of their seats till the end of the book
